Council Names Amanda N. Maurer as Municipal Judge

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, CO – City Council has selected Amanda N. Maurer as the new Municipal Judge for the City. She has served as Substitute Municipal Judge for the City since 2007. She also currently serves as the Municipal Judge for the Town of New Castle and Associate Municipal Judge for the City of Rifle, Town of Gypsum, and Town of Silt.

She graduated with her Juris Doctor, With Honors, from George Washington University Law School in Washington, D.C.

“I am committed to making our local municipal courts accessible and fair, while respecting the hard work our law enforcement officers are doing every day to protect our communities,” Judge Maurer said. “I am honored to serve as Municipal Judge for the City of Glenwood Springs.”
