Glenwood Springs City Council Creates New Arts and Culture Board

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, CO – The City Council for the City of Glenwood Springs has created a new Arts and Culture Board to advise the Council on all matters relating to artistic and cultural development within the City.

The powers and duties of the Arts and Culture Board shall be:

- (1) To promote awareness, access, and appreciation of the fine, performing, and practical arts for City residents and visitors.
- (2) To advise the City Council in connection with all matters relating to the artistic and cultural development of the City.
- (3) To provide opportunities for cultural and art experience and education for children and adults.
- (4) To promote increased interaction among artists and opportunities for growth and exposure.
- (5) To promote knowledge and appreciation for cultural forms of artistic expression.
- (6) To make recommendations to the City Council with respect to annual budget appropriations for the arts.
- (7) To advise and consult with local arts groups as requested by such groups or by the City Council.

The City of Glenwood Springs is looking for applicants to fill 7 vacancies on the Arts and Culture Board. Board members must be residents of Glenwood Springs, live within the 81601 area, or own real property or a business within the City.

Applications are due by 5:00 pm, September 25, 2017 and can be submitted online through the link at cogs.us/ArtsBoard. Applications may also be submitted in-person to the City Clerk's Office or via e-mail to catherine.fletcher@cogs.us.

The City of Glenwood Springs strongly supports the arts and will be adding arts, music, and dance programming to its offerings through the Parks and Recreation Department. If you have an interest in recommending programs and promoting arts within the City, consider volunteering for the new Arts and Culture Board.
